

Name: _____ Section: _____

The Solar System – Open Response Question 6

The movements of planets in our solar system can be described as rotating and/or revolving.

- a) Describe the difference between a planet's rotation and a planet's revolution as it moves in our solar system.

- b) What is the relationship between a planet's movement (rotation and revolution) and time? Use your knowledge of Earth to provide supporting details.